Hailey Weidenbaum Vertical Leather Acapulco Chairs add both style and practical features without taking up too much visual space in this small living room run by California-based interior designer Haley Weidenbaum. Stylish seats with wooden veneer consoles add balance to the cool colors of the rooms. The Marion Alberge room, where French interior designer Marion Alberge warms brown rules in her Paris apartment. The chocolate brown sofa is incredibly charming. Gold and yellow pops, such as side chairs and decorative brass accessories, lend the room a bright contrast. Yellow accent pillows enhance the room's cohesive look. Ashley Bell Interiors We love the space, which blends traditional styles with other elements shown in this master bedroom by Ashley Bell Interiors based in Dallas, Texas. The black leather headboard is a foundation piece that secures space. It's beautifully woven with other key furniture, including mid-century dressers and kilim-woven rugs. When it all lies in deceiving a room with its unique décor, there's nothing more satisfying than scoring stylish vintage furniture at an affordable basement price. Our favorite, for example, is this Maroon Leather Sounder in a teen-like living room featured in Homepolish, an online home decorating service. The warm hue pairs beautifully with the orange mid-century sofa and is a dramatic contrast to the mint-green wall. Continue to 5 out of 16 below. Alhem Maccleri Vintage leather pieces add a long-lasting look to this modern Nordic living room in Alchem Makleri. On the far right is a 1960s safari leather lounge chair by Swedish designer Arne Norrell. In the foreground is a 1970s chrome tough leather lounge chair by American designer Cy Mann. The chair is not the same color, but because both are brown, neutral shades, this mainly works in a white living space. Labl Studio leather sofas make the most of this teen-like living room from homepoland interior designer Candice Line. The soft color of the sofa does not overwhelm the color scheme, where the air is good.
